Joint Status Report

Now come the parties in the above-captioned matter and provide this Court with a joint status report. The parties state the following:

1. Discovery is completed but for the inspection of dispatch records [which records and data shall be provided to the Plaintiff, in and for the Defendant to determine if they exist], if the records exist an inspection will occur within sixty (60) days.
2. The inspection of records will allow the Plaintiff to approximate damages.
3. As a result, neither a settlement demand, nor a request for mediation has been made at this time.
4. Keeping in mind the above issues and schedules of counsel, the parties anticipate the matter would be ready for trial in November or December 2007

Dated: August 30, 2007

Respectfully submitted,
